

This is the Range

That took First Premium at the World's Fair

Nothing more fitting for a Christmas Present

FOR SALE BY

Geo. A. Lowe Co.

2326-2328 Washington Ave.

SPECIALS IN DIAMONDS AND WATCHES UNTIL XMAS

We have the most complete stock of mounted and loose diamonds in the city.

1-4 kt. Diamond in 14
kt. Ring ...$28.00

Ladies' O size, Hunting Watches, guaranteed 20 years,
for .....$11.00

Gent's Gold Filled,
from .....$7.00

25 per cent off Hand-painted China.

Remember you also get one chance with every dollar purchase, of the 4th Annual Drawing. Value of prizes $102.50.
See prizes in window.

SMALLEY'S
The People's Jewelers.

348 Twenty-Fifth Street.

Smokeless

Until science discovered a way to construct the Automatic Smokeless Device, and make it completely dependable, all oil heaters had one common great fault—smoke.

With the advent of the Automatic Smokeless Device, and its practical application to the

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device) the smoke problem was successfully solved.

The Perfection Oil Heater is the only heater equipped with this Automatic Smokeless Device

which insures a steady, full-glowing heat, with the wick turned up as high as it will go, without a shred of smoke. Reverse the motion, turn the wick down—there's no odor.
The smokeless device automatically locks and prevents the upward movement of the wick beyond the proper exposure. That is the secret. This splendid result gives leadership to the Perfection.

You may now have all the heat you want—when you want it—and where you want it—without the annoyance of smoke or odor.
Brass font holds 4 quarts of oil, which permits a glowing heat for 9 hours.
The Perfection is beautifully finished in Nickel or Japan.
Every Dealer Everywhere. If Not At Yours, Write for Descriptive Circular to the Nearest Agency of the

CONTINENTAL OIL COMPANY
(Incorporated)

Want Ads Bring Big Results

SALT LAKE AND STATE NEWS

STATE CONVENTION FOR BETTER ROADS

Salt Lake, Dec. 22.—The good roads convention, which Governor William Spry has called for January 26, 27 and 28 will consist of 730 delegates, and plans being made will make it the most interesting assemblage of its kind ever held in Utah. Before leaving for the east to attend the launching of the United States battleship Utah, the governor signed the official call and directed John K. Hardy, his secretary, to attend to the issuance of the invitations.

Neighboring states will be asked to participate and to assist in the discussions, not only because of the educational value of the convention, but also because questions are certain to arise concerning interstate roads. Invitations have therefore been sent to Governor B. B. Brooks of Wyoming, Governor J. H. Brady of Idaho, Governor D. S. Dickinson of Nevada and Governor John H. Shafroth of Colorado.

Besides these personal invitations to be present and address the convention, these governors are asked to appoint each forty delegates who will have full privileges in the convention.
The call has also been sent to the commissioners of each county in the state, who are asked to name the delegates, and the members of each county board, with the county surveyor and county road commissioners, are expected, making fifteen delegates officially from each county.

A week ago, in anticipation of the convention, the governor had a conference with the county commissioners of Davis county, with a view of arranging an excursion over the sand ridge as a portion of the highway between here and Ogden is known. It is proposed to make a model road of the ridge, if the convention approves.

O'CONNELL WOULD GO MIKE ANOTHER ROUND

Salt Lake, Dec. 22.—Eddie O'Connell, the crack coast wrestler, who was thrown Monday night by Mike Yokel, is still in Salt Lake, hoping to arrange a return match with Yokel or a match with Ackerman or Karp.
O'Connell says he was not in the best shape at the time of his bout with Yokel, and thinks, with a little more training and a match at 145 pounds, he can throw Yokel. He says he is anxious to meet either Karp or Ackerman at 145 pounds.

Mike Yokel just as often as he can throw O'Connell just as often as they meet, and says he would prefer to have his one other match in Salt Lake this winter with some other man, preferably Ackerman. He said a match with someone else, he believed, would draw better. In the event that no match is held in Salt Lake with Yokel, O'Connell will endeavor to have Mike meet him in Portland.

SALT LAKE ROUTE RATIFIES BOND ISSUE.

Salt Lake, Dec. 22.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Salt Lake route held in the office of Pen-nel Cherrington, legal representative for the route, this city, this morning, the action of the stockholders at their meeting yesterday authorizing a bond issue of $500,000 was upheld.

Of the new issue $400,000 will be used to take up the bonds issued by the company when the road was built in 1903, and the remaining $20, 000,000 will be used for improvements and extensions.

Following the meeting this morning, J. Ross Clark, second vice president of the route, said that the only important business transacted by the directors this morning was the ratification of the action of the stockholders for the issuance of the bonds.

TAXICABS COMING FOR SALT LAKE'S TRADE.

Salt Lake, Dec. 22.—Seven taxicabs, said to be among the handsomest and most substantial ever turned out of the shops at Pontiac, Mich., are on their way to Salt Lake City. They are expected to arrive here in a very few days and they will be put in use as quickly as they can be unloaded and put in working order.

These "taxis" were purchased by the Taxicab and Auto company, organized in this city some months ago, at a cost of about $3500 each. This new concern has placed an order for twenty-five taxicabs, and a number of Carter cars and Thor motorcycles in the east, on this line of business will be carried on on a large scale in Salt Lake.

COLORED FORGER POSTPONES PLEA

David Woods, the negro charged with forging a check made in favor of another by the H. L. Griffin company several weeks ago, was brought into the District court yesterday, but availed himself of the time allowed by the state statute to enter his plea.
Woods is a confirmed "hog head."

After his return to the city from Boise, where he was arrested, he told the local officers that he was an eyewitness to the shooting of Special Officer C. C.
Riley by L. E. Driskell and R. E. Kennedy. His story created a sensation at the time, but it is now denied by the Salt Lake police, who claim that Woods was a prisoner in the city jail at Salt Lake at the time of the shooting and could not have possibly seen the killing.

DEMOCRATS IN DEADLOCK.

Butler, Mo., Dec. 22.—In an effort to break the deadlock which developed yesterday, the Democrats of the Sixth congressional district, in convention here today, resumed their efforts to name a candidate to succeed the late Congressman David A. De Armond.

On the 15th ballot, the last taken last night, C. C. Dickinson of Henry county led the other three candidates, lacking but seven votes to secure the nomination. The other candidates are J. M. Hargus, St. Clair county; J. W.

Suddarth, Johnson county; and C. M.
Newman, Dayne county.

LOCAL RAILROAD SHOPS ARE GIVEN THE HONORS

Ogden's railroad shops, for the year 1908, take the lead over all others on the Oregon Short Line and Southern Pacific lines east of Sparks and neighboring departments on divisions out of the city score highly, according to the official announcement of the result of the annual inspection trip made public yesterday morning.

The inspection, which was made about two months ago, was most thorough and rigid, and covered every mile of track of the company in Utah, Idaho, Montana and Oregon, as well as all stations, pumping plants and shops.
The official announcement is always eagerly awaited by the railroad men, from the humblest laborer up to the highest division official, as it marks the end of months of striving. The winners will receive gold or silver medals. These will be delivered in time for Christmas.

Following is the official result of the inspection, as announced yesterday:

First division: Idaho division: W.
H. Jones, superintendent, score, 92.7.
Best district, Nampa district, Idaho division: Tim Donovan, roadmaster, score, 97.32.

Best section: Section No. 58, Idaho division: Patrick Brennan, foreman; score, 96.5.

Best stations: Midlake, Kaysville and Mendon, Utah; Ross Fork, Elva and Ashton, Idaho; Dillon, Mont.; Orchard, Richfield and Nampa, Idaho; Ondaga, Ore., and Welsler, Idaho, each scoring 10.

Best pumping stations: Valmy, Battle Mountain and Boonville, Nev.; Garland, Utah; Shoshone, Gooding, King Hill, Glenn's Ferry, Welsler and Payette, Idaho; and Nyassa, Or., each scoring 10.

Best shops: Ogden, Utah, scoring 9.6.

Best section houses and grounds:
Sections Nos. 6 and 105, Utah division, section No. 5, Salt Lake division, each scoring 10.

Best signal charging plants: Pocatello, Idaho, scoring 10.

Main lines: O. S. L., Idaho division: W. H. Jones, superintendent, score, 91.7. O. S. L., Montana division: W. R. Armstrong, superintendent, score, 92.0. O. S. L., Utah division:
A. B. Stevenson, superintendent, score, 91.9. S. P. Co., Salt Lake division: K. C. Manson, superintendent, score, 91.7.

Branch lines: O. S. L., Montana division: score, 85.8. O. S. L., Idaho division: score, 85.4. S. P. Co., Salt Lake division: score, 84.6. O. S. L., Utah division: score, 81.8.

Premiums Awarded.

For best district, all divisions, gold medal: Nampa district, Idaho division, O. S. L., score, 95.32; Tim Donovan, roadmaster.

For best section, all divisions, gold medal: Glenn's Ferry district, Idaho division, O. S. L., score, 96.5; Patrick Brennan, foreman.

For best section on each roadmaster's district, silver medals: O. S. L., Idaho division, Nampa district, section No. 75; score, 98.0; P. A. Brown, foreman. O. S. L., Utah division, Salt Lake district, section No. 6; score, 94.9; George Phelps, foreman. S. P.
Co., Salt Lake division, Sparks district, section No. 11; score, 94.5; J.
Gildea, foreman. S. P. Co., Salt Lake division, Ogden district, section No.
58; score, 94.8; B. J. Kierman, foreman. O. S. L., Utah division, Cache Junction district, section No. 10; score, 94.2; M. Morton, foreman. O. S.
L., Idaho division, Minidoka district, section No. 45; score, 94.0; Mike Veltri, foreman. O. S. L., Idaho division, Kemerer district, section No. 5; score, 93.0; W. P. Stewart, foreman.

O. S. L., Idaho division, Pocatello district, section No. 31; score, 93.8; H.
Blaser, foreman. S. P. Co., Salt Lake division, Carlin district, section No.
1; score, 93.6; Thomas Dunnigan, foreman. O. S. L., Montana division, Idaho Falls district, section No. 125; score, 93.6; Frank Wilson, foreman.
S. P. Co., Salt Lake division, Wells district, section No. 45; score, 92.9; D. Labate, foreman. O. S. L., Montana division, Lima district, section No.
148; score, 92.38; N. Christensen, foreman. S. P. Co., Salt Lake division, Nevada & California railway, section No. 1; score, 92.8; M. Hart, foreman. O. S. L., Montana division, Yellowstone district, section No. 302; score, 89.5; Joe Plastino, foreman.

For perfect stations, gold medal: Midlake, Utah; Mrs. M. P. Kall, operator. Kaysville, Utah; Paul Thomassen, agent. Mendon, Utah; R. C.
Bassett, agent. Ross Fork, Idaho; Walter Davis, agent. Elva, Idaho; B.
M. Muller, agent. Ashton, Idaho; R.
T. Droulger, agent. Dillon, Mont.; S. S. Carruthers, agent. Nampa, Idaho; J. M. McPherson, agent. Welsler, Idaho; J. W. Lapsch, agent. Ontario, Or.; H.
O. Drane, agent. Orchard, Idaho; Mrs.
M. E. Colas, agent. Richfield, Idaho;
F. A. Wilcox, agent.

For perfect pumping stations, silver medal: Valmy, Nev.; C. Marker, pumper. Belle Mountain, Nev.; F.
Eads, pumper. Boonville, Nev.; G.
Bradford, pumper. Garland, Utah; Davis Jones, pumper. Shoshone, Idaho; C. R. Wheeler, pumper. Gooding, Ida.; William Richards, pumper. King Hill, Idaho; William Russell, pumper.
Glenn's Ferry, Idaho; Charles Shipper, pumper. Welsler, Idaho; Henry Paulson, pumper. Payette, Idaho; James Whalen, pumper. Nyssa, Or.; Wm.
B. Kervan, pumper.

The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Meyers: "Billy, I will give you a thousand dollars every time you lead, and that goes for five times." Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chicago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give you just ten more rounds to fight, and if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare you to fight with this fight, but I will save a year.' Which meant that upon the defense McAuliffe was simply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

Refining company contemplated filing claim for half a million dollars, for losses alleged to have been sustained since 1907 by overweights, has been known in Washington for some time.
Last summer the attorney for the company mentioned the matter to the treasury department. The claim will be looked into.

MAGNITUDE OF GOVERNMENT MEAT INSPECTION

LARGE AMOUNTS OF DISEASED
MEATS CONDEMNED.

The annual report of the Bureau of Animal Industry to the Secretary of Agriculture at Washington shows that during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1909, there were 141,085 carcasses of food animals and 899,628 parts of carcasses condemned because of being diseased and unfit for human food. In addition, 11,285,323 pounds of meat products were condemned upon reinspection for sanitary reasons.
These figures give a clear idea of the magnitude of the work being done by the government meat inspection. It is a forward step toward protecting the health of the people. The old saying that "prevention is worth a pound of cure," is the very cornerstone of the meat inspection. By condemning all diseased and unclean meats they are preventing diseases getting into the human body, while, where there is no inspection, such meats are sold to the unsuspecting public—spreading misery and diseases.

Any sane person who would give this one minute's thought would never buy anything but U. S. Inspected Meats. He cannot afford to take the chance.

JACK M'AUILLIFFE GREAT FIGHTER

Otto C. Floto, who has witnessed most of the championship battles for the last twenty years, writes as follows about Jack McAuliffe:

"Talking about old times and conditions and lightweights, I still contend that Jack McAuliffe was the greatest of that sort of pugilist who fought on a glove. His wonderful record when placed by comparison alongside some of our present-day fighters stands forth in the limelight by itself. Only Basil Nelson, our present day champion, can at all be mentioned when discussing 'Our Jack'."

"When we look back over his career we find that never was there a de-feater registered against him, this, too, in view of the fact that ninety-nine out of a hundred battles that he had were finish fights. There was no comfortable club and comfortable chairs allowing us to be seated around the ring. No, indeed, it was a case of go out in the woods and with skin tight gloves battle until there was a winner or a loser.

"Only twice did McAuliffe have an opportunity to fight before a well-heated and well-regulated club for his laurels. Once when he fought Jimmy Carroll in the old California Athletic club when Fuld was at the head of affairs and again at New Orleans, Louisiana, when he fought Billy Daly, Mike Daly, Horace Leeds, Mike Gibbons, Jim Carney, the greatest lightweight of England, and any number of other great fighters.

"Just to give you an idea of the great amount of money wagered on him, I will recall the fight between McAuliffe and Meyers at North Judson, Ind. After all kinds of trouble, including the sheriff, the ring was pitched upstairs over a billiard hall, and no sooner was it erected than Dick Roche, the old St. Louis sporting man, climbed through the ropes and said: 'I have $25,000 or any part of it to bet on McAuliffe.' The miners throughout Illinois had each contributed to a betting fund and immediately accepted Roche's bet. Then Jimmy Colville made the same announcement and his money was taken quickly, then Phil Dwyer, the horseman, bet a like amount, and then Roche came back with $25,000 more.
Well, before they stopped something like $50,000 was bet at the ringside, most of it contributed by Parson Davies and Harry Ballard.

"McAuliffe, who had reduced too fast, weakened himself, and in the thirtieth round turned to Colville and said: 'I can't win this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thou-
sand dollars every time you lead, and
that goes for five times.' Meyers
scouted him, he smiled and said:
"You are the champion, you do the
leading." Then Mike McDonald of Chi-
cago, who was the referee, stepped
into the breach and said: "I will give
you just ten more rounds to fight, and
if there is not a winner that time
I will declare it no contest."

"One of the enthusiastic Meyers
supporters shouted from the back of
the hall: 'You can't do this. I dare
you to fight with this fight, but I
will save a year.' Which meant that
upon the defense McAuliffe was sim-
ply undefeated."

"The men fought sixty-six rounds,
and were simply walking around the
ring. At last McAuliffe said to Mey-
ers: 'Billy, I will give you a thousand dollars every time